Tariff issues for Cable TV Services in Non CAS Areas - TRAI gives a last and final opportunity to the stakeholders to submit the requisite information in the prescribed format

New Delhi, 21st January, 2010- In pursuance to the Hon'ble Supreme Court order dated 13th May 2009, TRAI has undertaken the exercise relating to tariff for Cable TV Services in Non-CAS areas. The Hon'ble Court had also directed all the stakeholders to cooperate in this exercise. Recently, the Hon'ble Supreme Court, vide its order dated 18th January 2010 has granted time upto 30th June 2010, to TRAI to finalize the report in this regard. As per the order, the broadcasters and other stakeholders would be at liberty to give their suggestions to TRAI within a reasonable time.

2. Accordingly, for wider participation of the stakeholders, TRAI has decided to give a last and final opportunity to all the stakeholders to submit the requisite information to TRAI in the prescribed formats by 15th February 2010, alongwith any other relevant information/suggestions. All the stakeholders who have not submitted the information or submitted incomplete information may now submit complete information in the prescribed formats by 15th February, 2010.

3. The formats for submission of the information, separately for Broadcasters, Aggregators, MSOs, DTH Operators, Cable Operators and Consumer Advocacy Groups, are available on TRAI website: <http://www.trai.gov.in/BCSFormat.asp> . Cooperation of all stakeholders is solicited by TRAI to complete the exercise in time.
