

Hello,

As a concerned user, I would like to vote my views. OTT services are true gems of internet which allow users not to be regulated by unwanted bodies who want to control our decision. India would severely fail on digital level if such regulations are made. Failing behind china and their rules.

Please do not bring this to act.