6	M.V.G.Krishna/ Gopal Maladi, Sr. Journalist, A.P	malladigopal@gmail.com	Appreciate the decision taken by the Trai in favour of the viewers. It should be strictly implemented. I personally fell that overflow of the advertisements is totally disturbing the viewers and prime entertainment channels are nonsensically irritating the viewers for their income by pouring the ads and they are not at all caring the feelings of the Viewers.
7	Vanaja	cvanaja@gmail.com	We strongly support TROI new guidelines to put a cap on the advertisements in paid entertainment channels. As we are paying lot of money to the channels as fee why should we bear all those advertisements.pls save us from these money minting and irresponsible TV channels. They should not put more than 6 minutes in any hour. They should not be allowed to use the cumulative minutes in the prime time or day time.
8.	NV Reddy, Andhra Pradesh	nvreddy.jntu@gmail.com	I extend my full support to the TRAI authorities for implementing the conditions which gives the TV audience pleasure by reducing the time to advertisements. This type of compulsory advertisements should be dispensed particularly in pay channels, so that audience enjoy the main program satisfactorily. I once again request you to take appropriate/suitable steps at an early date.
