General

Telecom Regulatory Authority of India was established on 28.03.1997 under “The Telecom Regulatory Authority of India Act 1997” (as amended in the year 2000).

The Act provides for the establishment of the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India to regulate the telecommunications services and to protect the interest of Service Providers and Consumers of the Telecom Sector, to promote and ensure orderly growth of the telecom sector and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. The Broadcasting and Cable Service sectors were brought under the purview of TRAI in the year 2004.

TRAI’s mission is to ensure that the interests of consumers are protected and at the same time nurture conditions for growth of telecommunications, broadcasting and cable services in a manner and at a pace which will enable India to play a leading role in emerging global information society.

One of the main objectives of TRAI is to provide a fair and transparent policy environment which promotes a level playing field and facilitates fair competition.

In pursuance to the above objective, TRAI has issued, from time to time, a large number of regulations, orders and directions to deal with issues and provide the required direction for the evolution of Indian telecom sector.

The directions, orders and regulations issued cover a wide range of subjects including tariff, inter connection and quality of service.
