

SYED TAUSIF ABBAS
Principal Advisor (Broadcasting & Cable Services)
Telecom Regulatory Authority of India

Mr. Syed Tausif Abbas is currently working as Principal Advisor in Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI). He is responsible for regulatory and licensing matters related to Broadcasting & Cable Services, Spectrum and Networks.

He is an Engineering Graduate in Electronics & Telecommunications from University of Allahabad. He belongs to 1989 Batch of Indian Telecom Service officers and has got more than 30 years of experience in Telecom Sector. He has worked in various positions in telecom domains covering Telecom Projects, Telecom operations, capacity building & training division, licensing, regulatory and policy formulation.

Presently, in TRAI, he is associated with the regulatory and licensing work related to Broadcasting & Cable Services including Cable TV, Satellite TV (DTH), IPTV, Radio broadcasting, Digital Addressable System, 5G Broadcast, Television Audience Measurements, Interconnection and QoS issues. He is also associated with the works related to Mobile Networks, Spectrum and Telecom Licensing matters including 5G Technologies, M2M Communications, IoT, PPDR Communications, Satellite Communications, Spectrum for IMT-2020 and Mobile Number Portability.

Currently, he also holds the position of Chairman of SATRC Working Group on Spectrum at APT.