SOME GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE CITY – NEW DELHI

Delhi has a long history and legacy which is evident with the presence of many monuments and iconic buildings. The city is situated on the banks of river Yamuna and falls in the Northern part of India on the floodplains of the mighty Himalayas. Once a part of the Aravali mountains, today Delhi has only the Ridge area to tell the story of the greenery this place once had. The city is sprinkled with captivating ancient monuments, fascinating museums and art galleries, architectural wonders, a vivacious performing-arts scene, fabulous eating places and bustling markets.

The tourism information guide will be part of the conference package, which gives all the details about places of tourist's attractions and city map.

LOCAL TRANSPORTATION

Metro is the popular mode of public transport in Delhi which connects to all corners of the city and is very economical. There are many app-based taxis such as Uber & Ola which are other cheap modes of transport. The taxis available at the hotel may be expensive.

WEATHER

October in Delhi brings pleasant post-monsoon weather, with temperatures ranging between approximately 19 C to 31 C. Delhi weather in October experiences nearly 11 hours of sunlight daily, along with occasional showers. The humidity levels start to drop, and the refreshing warm breeze continues. However, mornings and late evenings will be slightly chilly, but enjoyable.

BANKS AND CURRENCY

The unit of currency is Indian Rupees which comes in denominations of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500. Please use only the authorized money changers and banks to convert currency. They will issue a certificate of exchange which is required at the time of re-conversion of any unused currency. The currency may be exchanged at the airport on arrival.
