

ADVERTISEMENT

Telecom Regulatory Authority of India proposes to engage consulting firms with presence in India (office /partners) for carrying out a survey of Consumers in 20 major cities. The issues related to cable charges, consumer awareness, quality of service and competitiveness would be covered in the survey. The Terms of Reference of the consultancy project are available on TRAI's website www.trai.gov.in. The last date for submission of expression of interest is 19.7.2006.